Hi career scribe/Rohan,

This is with regard to our conversation, As discussed i don't wish to continue this interview process anymore, due to new documents requirements that are made from your side and and charges that you are asking for them. These charges were not told to me in the beginning, but were asked for once i deposited the initial amount. I am attaching both the mails that have the confirmation of my paid amounts i.e. 2700(for starting the process) and 6500(for Profile verification certificate). I also mailed you twice all the documents that were and should be required for a interview process, but now i can't afford all the process that are being asked. I paid the earlier amounts because i was ensured that after paying this my interview would be scheduled directly and nothing else would be asked for after that.

So, as per our discussion over the call you confirmed that this amount will be refunded. Therefore Kindly, Refund the amount at earliest and send me a written confirmation for the same. I was told that amount will be refunded in the same medium from which transaction has been made, but still if you require any details then let me know.

Thanks,
Resham
